[PROPOSED] ORDER

AND NOW, this _____ day of _____, 2023, upon consideration of the foregoing Unopposed Motion for Continuance of Trial, and it appearing that the interests of justice are served by granting the requested continuance outweigh the best interests of the public and the Defendant in a speedy trial, it is hereby ORDERED and DECREED that pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3161 (h)(7)(A), said Motion is GRANTED. It is further ORDERED and DECREED that taking in to account the exercise of due diligence, the failure to grant the requested continuance would deny counsel for the defendant reasonable and adequate time necessary for effective preparation, therefore trial in this matter shall commence on the _____ day of _____, 20____ at _____ a.m. and the continuance period shall be marked excludable in accordance with 18 U.S.C. § 3161(h)(7)(B)(iv).

SECOND UNOPPOSED MOTION TO CONTINUE TRIAL

1. On or about February 15, 2023, this Court appointed undersigned counsel (“Ms. Rossman”) to represent Mr. Mattis in connection with the above-captioned matter. Shortly thereafter, the Court scheduled a trial date of May 22, 2023 that was continued to October 23, 2023.
2. The government has provided significant discovery that defense counsel has shared with Mr. Mattis and continues to review. Additionally, defense counsel requested additional discovery from the government to share with retained experts in this matter. While some of this discovery was provided, there remain important outstanding items.
3. Ms. Rossman has consulted with AUSA Robert Eckert who is assigned to this matter and does not oppose a continuance of trial. Both Mr. Ecker and Ms. Rossman request a new date no earlier than February 2024.
4. Finally, Mr. Mattis does not oppose the requested relief as evidenced by the Waiver of Speedy Trial Rights attached hereto as Exhibit A.

WHEREFORE, Mr. Mattis requests that this Court grant his Unopposed Motion to Continue Trial and reset this matter for February 2024 or later.

Respectfully Submitted,
